This Blessed Vicar of Christ, on the 15th of August in the year 1130, was brutally dragged out of his Vatican residence by the armies of perverse illegitimate Sicilian king Roger, and by the Roman populace. The Vatican residence was taken over by antipope Anacletus II the Hebrew, apostate bishop who had reverted in secret to the perfidious Jewish synagogue; so that Pope Saint Innocent II found himself compelled to flee to France. This Holy Supreme Pontiff, on the 30th of April in the year 1133, accompanied by German Emperor Saint Lothar III, with a large army, entered the city of Rome in triumph and succeeded in taking over the Vatican residence; consequently, antipope Anacletus II the Hebrew and his partisans, panic-stricken, fled to the Italian town of Viterbo, town in which the antipope exercised his antipontificate until his death, which occurred on the 25th of January in the year 1138. This Holy Universal Shepherd of the Church, in the Vatican basilica, on the 4th of June in the year 1133, solemnly decorated German Emperor Saint Lothar III, placing an invaluable golden chain about his neck, thereby investing him with the title of "Defender and Protector of the Holy Apostolic See." Following this ceremony the Holy Emperor, still kneeling before the Vicar of Christ, renewed the promise of submission to Papal authority he had previously made before Pope Saint Honorius II the Great on the occasion of his imperial crowning. During the Pontificate of this Blessed Servant of the servants of God, after the death of antipope Anacletus II the Hebrew, the latter's partisans, protected by perverse illegitimate Sicilian king Roger, elected an antipope who took the name of Victor IV, who exercised his antipontificate in the Italian town of Viterbo until his death, which occurred on the 8th of September in the year 1143. This Sovereign Successor of Saint Peter convoked, solemnly opened, presided over, directed, approved and solemnly closed the Holy Dogmatic Second Council of the Lateran. heretical French king Henry IV; in this way the Pope brought about the re-establishment of the rights of the Church violated by the authorities of that sacrilegious and blasphemous republic, and also the return of all Religious Orders, including that of the Jesuits, as likewise the Secular Clergy. As from that victory the city of Venice came under the Supreme Authority of the Pope, though ruled in the capacity of vassal by means of Most Christian Spanish King Saint Philip III. This Blessed Vicar of Christ never recognized the pseudo-marriage of perverse heretical French king Henry IV to the shameless Maria de Medici. This Holy Supreme Pontiff never recognized the coronation of the shameless Maria de Medici; above all since the king's lawful wife, the shameless heretical Margaret of Valois, was still living. During the Pontificate of this Holy Universal Shepherd of the Church, on the 14th of May in the year 1610 occurred the regicide of perverse heretical French king Henry IV, who was stabbed by Francis Ravaillac by order of the shameless Maria de Medici. #### 236. Saint Urban VIII the Great. Lilium et Rosa

Born in Florence, Italy. Pontificate: from 29-7-1623 to 29-7-1644. Great Mystic. Stigmatic. Unjustly accused of nepotism. Vilely and inordinately calumniated by order of antipope Alexander VII the Sorcerer, stealthily installed with tenebrous nocturnity by perverse French king Louis XIII. Martyr. Died poisoned by order of the shameless Olympia Maidalchini. Apostle of Papal Supremacy in spiritual and temporal orders; of the Most Holy Trinity; of the Excellences of Our Lord Jesus Christ, true God and true Man; of the three hours of Jesus' Agony in the Garden of Olives; of Jesus Crucified in His Three Hours of Agony; of Mary Dolorous at the foot of the Cross wholly bathed in tears; of the Holy and Terrible Name of Mary and of the Holy and Terrible Name of Joseph; of Saint Urban I the Great; of the Holy Sacrifice of Mass, Sublime Atoner to God for the manifold offences He receives; of the regenerating efficacy of the Holy Sacrament of Baptism; of the restoring efficacy of the Holy Sacrament of Confession; of the superabundant spiritual benefits of the Holy Sacrament of Communion; of the mighty spiritual efficacy, and at times physical as well, of the Holy Sacrament of Extreme Unction; of the salvific efficacy of the Holy Sacrament of the Papacy or Eighth Sacrament; of the powerful efficacy of the Church's prayers; of the potent efficacy of the Sublime Contemplative Life of those consecrated to God; of the great efficacy of chaste and austere lives; of Prayer, Sublime Pillar of the Life of Grace in the soul; of Prayer, Sublime and deep Foundation of the Life of Grace in the soul; of floral adornment in the Lord's Sacred Churches and in processions; of Worship of the Lord's Sacred Relics, and of Worship of Sacred Relics and Imágenes; and of the earth's orbit around the sun. Exalted Whip against jansenists and other multiple heretics. Signal Hammer against schismatics. Chanter of the Glories and Prerogatives of Mary and Joseph. Imperishable Consul of God. Torch of Holy Tradition. Gracious Master of Peoples. Fearsome Watchtower over Catholic Orthodoxy. This Glorious Pope took no part at all in the Inquisition's iniquitous conviction of the Italian physicist, mathematician and astronomer Saint Galileo Galilei; among other atrocities committed against him, his eyes were put out; he being freed from death through the intervention of the Pope, who deeply regretted all the injuries suffered by the innocent sage and most faithful son of the Church. This Blessed Vicar of Christ, by means of a Bishop delegate of his, in the city of Frankfurt, on the 14th of September in the year 1635, solemnly decorated the German Emperor Saint Ferdinand II, placing an invaluable golden chain about his neck, thereby investing him with the title of "Defender and Protector of the Holy Apostolic See." Following this ceremony the Holy Emperor, still kneeling before the Papal Bishop Delegate, renewed the promise of submission to Papal authority he had previously made before the Papal Bishop Delegate of Saint Paul V the Great on the occasion of his imperial coronation. This Holy Supreme Pontiff at all times backed and protected the cause of Catholicism against protestantism, cause championed by Holy German Emperor Ferdinand II and by Most Christian Spanish King Philip IV. This Holy Universal Shepherd of the Church, making use of his sacred prerogatives, excommunicated perverse French king Louis XIII, creature of most perverse anathematized French cardinal Richelieu, fanatical protector of protestantism and enemy of the Papacy; and exonerated the king's subjects from the obligation of obeying him. Neither German Emperor Saint Ferdinand II nor Most Christian Spanish King Philip IV ever accused this Beatific Servant of the servants of God of favouring protestantism. This Sovereign Successor of Saint Peter never desired to wrest from Spain her legitimate possessions in Italy granted by other Popes. During the Pontificate of this regal Universal Patriarch of the Church, perverse French king Louis XIII, instigated by most perverse French cardinal Richelieu, while surreptitiously plotting against Pope Saint Urban VIII the Great and protecting protestantism, at the same time, when it suited him, outwardly became champion of *the Pope outraged by him, of Church reform, of religious foundations and of other acts favourable to the Church. This Beatific Universal Father miraculously emerged unscathed from numerous attempts to poison him ordered by perverse French king Louis XIII, most perverse French cardinal Richelieu, and antipope Alexander VII the sorcerer. Zealous Guardian of Sacrosanct Priestly Celibacy, though alas not a model of chastity. Soul of Evangelizing Missions. Indecisive Sentinel of the Faith. This Glorious Pope did not have the holy courage forcefully to condemn a certain number of heretics, he being voluntarily in almost complete subjection to the whims and fancies of the shameless Olympia Maidalchini, through whom all the bureaucratic affairs of the Holy Apostolic See had to pass. This Blessed Vicar of Christ, owing to his indecisive character, did not succeed in breaking off once and for all his relations with the shameless Olympia Maidalchini. This Holy Supreme Pontiff was one of the Popes who spent a long time in Purgatory.

This Blessed Vicar of Christ never invited the shameless, scandalous ex-queen Christine of Sweden to dine at his pontifical table; moreover he expelled her from the city of Rome because of her fondness for obscene feasts and for her licentiousness, having previously exhorted her to change her evil life without her having amended. This Holy Supreme Pontiff never yielded to the impositions of perverse French king Louis XIV, whom he excommunicated, and moreover exonerated his subjects from the obligation of obeying him. Died poisoned by order of his successor, perverse Pope Clement XIV. Apostle of Papal Supremacy in spiritual and temporal orders; of the Most Holy Trinity; of the Excellences of Our Lord Jesus Christ, true God and true Man; of Jesus ridiculed by the chief priests in High Priest Caiphas's residence; of Jesus Crucified affronted by the priests and mobs on Calvary; of Mary Dolorous desolate at the foot of the Cross; of Marian Devotion, of Josephine Devotion; of Saint John the Evangelist Dolorous, desolate at the foot of the Cross and in him the entire Church; of Saint Mary Magdalen desolate on her knees before Jesus Crucified on Calvary; of trustingly drawing near to God; of Worship of the Lord's Sacred Relics, and of Worship of Sacred Relics and Imágenes. Chanter of the Glories and Prerogatives of Mary and Joseph. Upright Consul of God. Guide and Master of Peoples. Glorious Upholder of the Company of Jesus. Flailer of defamers. Unoverthrowable Watchtower over Catholic Orthodoxy. This Glorious Pope preferred in all sincerity to have his hands and feet cut off rather than sign any decree abolishing the Order of the Company of Jesus. This Blessed Vicar of Christ did everything in his power to prevent the sacrilegious expulsion of the Jesuits from different nations; above all those carried out: by perverse freemason prime minister of Portugal, the Marquis of Pombal; by perverse freemason French king Louis XV; and by perverse freemason Spanish king Charles III. In this mission of preventing the sacrilegious expulsion of the Jesuits, Pope Saint Clement XIII the Great received no support at all; rather opposition from some and the silence of complicity from others, such as the deplorable silent neutrality of the Empress of Austria Maria Teresa. The entire Pontificate of this Holy Supreme Pontiff was an uninterrupted ascent of the way of bitter sorrow until reaching Golgotha as immolated victim in defence of the Company of Jesus. Model of perseverance until death in the mission given by God even in the midst of great vicissitudes. Sponsor of homes for helpless aged men and women. Salient Solar Luminary of the Church.

250. Reprobate Clement XIV. Ursus Velox

Born in Rimini, Italy. Pontificate: from 4-4-1769 to 22-9-1774. In his youth graced with many admirable mystical charisms, among them that of the stigmata. Though not affiliated to freemasonry, he nonetheless sympathized inordinately with freemasons. He unjustly abolished the Order of the Company of Jesus, sublime dyke against freemasonry. He died rejecting the Last Holy Sacraments, repeatedly uttering these words: "Hell is my abode." It is untrue that Saint Alphonse Mary de Liguori in bilocation administered the Last Holy Sacraments to him, as likewise that he died poisoned. He is in the eternal fire of Hell in the company of the perverse freemasons:

Portuguese prime minister the Marquis of Pombal; French king Louis XV; and Spanish king Charles III.

Uncollapsible Watchtower over Catholic Orthodoxy. *This Glorious Pope, though sympathizing with certain liberal ideas prior to his Pontificate, notwithstanding never formed part of any liberal group. This Blessed Vicar of Christ was never a member of freemasonry nor did he sympathize with freemasons; quite the opposite, for one of his first solemn acts on beginning his Pontificate was forcefully to condemn freemasonry, declaring it to be a tenebrous judeo-satanic sect. This Holy Supreme Pontiff convoked, solemnly opened, presided over and directed several sessions, approved and solemnly closed the Holy Dogmatic Vatican Council; Council which ran from the 8th of December in the year 1869 until the 18th of July in the year 1870. ### End of the Apostolic See in Rome

Book IV

From Pope Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great to the Pope happily reigning.

Beginning of the Apostolic See in El Palmar de Troya, Seville, Spain

Chapter I

264. Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great. De Glória Olivæ

The stigmatized principal seer of the Sacred Place of the Lentisco of El Palmar de Troya, Clemente Domínguez y Gómez, later Bishop Father Ferdinand. Born in Seville, Spain. Pontificate: From 6th of August 1978 to the 21st of March 2005. He was chosen, anointed and crowned Pope directly by Our Lord Jesus Christ on the 6th of August 1978 in the city of Santa Fe de Bogotá, capital of Colombia. On the 9th of August that same year 1978, he transferred the Cathedra of Saint Peter Apostle from Rome to El Palmar de Troya, via Santa Fe de Bogotá. Vilely calumniated and betrayed. He is the Founder of the Religious Order of Carmelites of the Holy Face in Company of Jesus and Mary, the Order of the Last Times, the Order of Crossbearers. Prominent among his great pontifical works are: Some fifty Pontifical Documents; a great many Dogmatic Definitions; countless Apostolic Decrees, Letters and Notes; an endless number of Canonizations of illustrious members of Christ's Mystical Body; numerous apostolic journeys throughout the five continents; the solemn opening, presidency, direction, approbation, signing and solemn closure of the Holy Great Dogmatic First Palmarian Council; and the solemn opening, presidency, direction, approbation, signing and solemn closure of the Holy Great Dogmatic Second Palmarian Council. Consequently, the fruits of his most fecund Pontificate were his Pontifical Documents, the Palmarian Creed, the Treatise on the Mass, the Palmarian Catechism, Palmarian Morals, the Treatise on the Most Holy Trinity, the Palmarian Code of Canon Law, and above all Sacred History or the Holy Palmarian Bible. He is, par excellence, the Pope of the Holy Bible as, in his gigantic doctrinal labour, he was the first Pope who accomplished an infallible interpretation of the Official Bible of Saint Jerome, called the Vulgate, as well as of the other versions of the Bible, in which the Word of God is mixed up with many errors and adulterations by men. The publication of Sacred History or the Holy Palmarian Bible is an overwhelming triumph of Pope Saint Gregory XVII against the schemes of Satan and his infernal and terrestrial partisans. Thus in the Holy Palmarian Bible the Word of God is contained in its absolute authenticity and purity; and therefore now free of the errors and adulterations that considerably contaminated and obscured it. The Sacred Person of this Pope is the Second Stone or Rock of the Church directly chosen and put in place by Our Lord Jesus Christ. This Glorious Pope carried out his entire Pontificate deprived of bodily sight, having lost both his eyes in a car accident. This Blessed Vicar of Christ wielded the flaming sword of Elias, cutting away any error or corruption in the true Church of Christ whether coming from outside or originating within. This Holy Supreme Pontiff, as Good Shepherd and Zealous Guardian of the House of the Lord, watched at the door of the sheepfold confided to him by Christ, preventing the entry of fierce wolves to disperse and devour the flock; and in turn expelled those who, camouflaged, attempted to corrupt the Church from within. This Holy Pope and Great Caudillo of the 'Tajo', with supreme courage, anathematized the antipope of Rome John Paul I the freemason, and the antipope of Rome John Paul II the freemason; and with the canons of his Infallible Doctrine and inflexible Discipline, proclaimed the Great Crusade of the Apocalyptic Period by means of an edict, doctrinal and disciplinary, yet belligerent, in defence of the rights of God and Church, openly combating all heresy and other corruption. With him commenced the Caudilloship of the 'Tajo', and therefore the Carmelite Caudilloship of the Crossbearers of the Last Times. This Holy Universal Shepherd masterfully taught: "The Bible has authority under the infallible interpretation of the Magisterium of the Church." This Blessed Minister of the Altar consummated his life as Sacrificer by his mystical crucifixion at the Altar of the Eucharist Sacrifice or Unbloody Calvary, during the celebration of his last Holy Mass, celebrated on the 20th of March in the year 2005. Exceptionally Radiant Solar Luminary of the Church.

Pope Saint Gregory XVII was solemnly canonized by his Successor Pope Saint Peter II the Great, on the 24th of March in the year 2005, Festivity of Holy Thursday. He is buried in the Cathedral-Basilica of Our Crowned Mother of El Palmar. Declared Very Great Doctor of the Church by Pope Saint Peter II the Great on the 23rd of April 2005. On the 29th of July 2005, Pope Saint Peter II the Great defined infallibly that the soul of Pope Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great, de Glória Olivæ, had not passed through Purgatory, but had gone directly to Heaven.

Chapter II

265. Saint Peter II the Great. De Cruce Apocalýptica

In the world, Manuel Alonso Corral, and later Bishop Father Isidore Mary. He was born in Cabeza del Buey-Badajoz, Spain, on Thursday the 22nd of November 1934, feastday of Saint Cecilia, virgin and martyr; so that he was given the second baptismal name of Cecil. Pontificate: from the 21st of March 2005 to the 15th of July 2011. Great Doctor, vilely calumniated and betrayed, Cofounder of the Order of Carmelites of the Holy Face, Patriarch of El Palmar de Troya, Second Principal Column of the Church of Christ in the spiritual desert of El Palmar de Troya, Protector and Defender of the Holy Palmarian Christian Church, Magnanimous Collaborator in Palmarian Doctrine and Discipline, Aflame with the Zeal of Elias, Lofty Solar Luminary of the Church. He occupied the Cathedra of Saint Peter Apostle immediately following the death of Saint Gregory XVII, by Apostolic Decree of Succession dated the 24th of October in the year 2000, drawn up and signed by his Revered Predecessor. He was Secretary of State during the whole Pontificate of Pope Saint Gregory XVII.

Manuel Alonso was the great propagator of the Palmarian Messages given to Clemente Domínguez, and accompanied him on many of his apostolic journeys throughout the world. They both lost their jobs unfairly on account of their valiant defence of the Work of El Palmar. Though he was not himself a seer, on certain occasions, both as a layman and as Bishop, he had personal charisms which strengthened him further, if possible, in the truth of El Palmar. The Divine Work of El Palmar de Troya was fiercely persecuted by the progressivist and ruinous hierarchy of the Roman Church, then ruled by glorious Pope Saint Paul VI, Martyr of the Vatican, who was aware of the Apparitions and Messages of El Palmar, handed over to him by the seer himself. Saint Paul VI never condemned the Work of El Palmar de Troya. Clemente Domínguez and Manuel Alonso had to defend the Apparitions of El Palmar with great energy and tenacity. On the 23rd of December 1975, despite many obstacles, Clemente Domínguez y Gómez, by order of Our Lord Jesus Christ, founded the Religious Order "Carmelites of the Holy Face in Company of Jesus and Mary", of which Manuel Alonso Corral is Cofounder. On the 1st of January 1976, at the request of the Most Holy Virgin, Clemente Domínguez and Manuel Alonso were ordained Priests by Archbishop Saint Peter Martin Ngô-dinh Thuc, who had arrived from Rome some days previously. And on the 11th of January 1976, they were both consecrated Bishops. At the death of Pope Saint Paul VI on the 6th of August 1978, Bishop Father Ferdinand, Clemente Domínguez y Gómez in the world, in the city of Santa Fe de Bogotá, capital of Colombia, was elected, anointed and crowned Pope directly by Our Lord Jesus Christ. Three day later, the new Pope, called Gregory XVII, de Glória Olivæ, translated the See of the Church from Rome to El Palmar de Troya, Seville, Spain. Thus began the history of the Papacy in El Palmar de Troya, with the mission of restoring and maintaining doctrinal and disciplinary integrity in Christ's Church, by way of profound reforms and magisterial teachings. For this purpose, Pope Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great convoked the Holy, Great, Dogmatic First Palmarian Council and the Holy, Great, Dogmatic Second Palmarian Council, assemblies in which the then Most Reverend Father Isidore Mary, Secretary of State, took part as principal collaborator. The great reform work reached its peak with the elaboration and publication of the Holy Palmarian Bible.

Most Reverend Father Isidore Mary, by order of Pope Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great, travelled through different parts of the world preaching and teaching the true Palmarian Catholic doctrine. On the 24th of October in the year 2000, Pope Saint Gregory XVII the Very Great drew up and signed an Apostolic Decree, naming his Secretary of State, Bishop Father Isidore Mary, as his successor in the Cathedra of Saint Peter. Immediately after the death of Pope Saint Gregory XVII on the 21st of March 2005, in El Palmar de Troya, the new Pope began his Pontificate with the name of Peter II, de Cruce Apocalýptica. On the 24th of March, Holy Thursday, his official coronation took place in the Cathedral-Basilica of Our Crowned Mother of El Palmar in El Palmar de Troya. The Papacy of the Glorious Vicar of Christ, Peter II, lasted six years, three months and twenty-four days. On the same day his papacy began, he named Most Reverend Father Sergius Mary as his Secretary of State, who collaborated with him in all the arduous tasks which the Church's Government involves. He was a Pope of great labours in the Church's interests, as he drew up and approved the magnum opus of Palmarian Ecclesiastical History, as likewise the Palmarian Lives of the Saints, the Children's Grade Bible, and the Elementary and Intermediate Grade Bibles. He also revised and rearranged the Messages of El Palmar de Troya. Warranting special mention among his writings are his Thirty Apostolic Letters sent out to the Church to teach, correct and hearten his Flock, which he loved so dearly as great Shepherd. He declared the Holy Years 2008, 2010 and 2011. He solemnly consecrated the Church Militant, the World and the entire Universe to the Eternal Father on the 21st of March 2008. As likewise he solemnly consecrated the Church, Spain, the World and the entire Universe to the Holy Face of Our Lord Jesus Christ on the 30th of March 2010. He also brought up to date, revised and retouched different doctrinal texts. He raised a great number of outstanding members of Christ's Mystical Body to the rank of the Glory of the Altars and declared Doctors of the Church. On the 22nd of October 2006, he infallibly defined that the Infernal Dragon incarnate, or Antichrist-in-person, or Man of Iniquity, was born in the year 2000, in Bethlehem, city of David, the very city where Our Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, was born. Likewise, on the 23rd of July 2006, he infallibly defined that he was descended on his father's side from Saint Ferdinand III, king of Castile and León, and his first wife Saint Beatrice of Swabia; and on his mother's side from Saint Alphonse Sánchez de Cepeda and his second wife Saint Beatrice de Ahumada, parents of the exalted Reformatrix of Carmel, Saint Teresa of Jesus. He also dogmatically defined other doctrinal matters. As Pope he had a great interest in visiting and celebrating Holy Masses in different cities and countries in which his Sacred Feet had trodden, and thus be able to make the word of God bear fruit, in imitation of the first Pope Saint Peter I the Very Great. And so, following this yearning, being the first Pope known to have done so, he celebrated Holy Mass in Russia, on the 27th and 28th of May 2008 in Saint Petersburg, and on the 29th, 30th and 31st of May 2008 in Moscow. In Moscow he consecrated Russia to the Holy Face, to Our Crowned Mother of El Palmar and to Most Holy Crowned Saint Joseph of El Palmar, to implore the Eternal Father for the swift conversion of the Russian people.

On the 6th of July 2010, His Holiness Pope Peter II, verbally, in the roll-call patio before the whole Community of Friars there present, named Most Reverend Father Sergius Mary of the Holy Face and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary as his successor, so that in the event of his death Most Reverend Father Sergius Mary might occupy the Cathedra of Saint Peter, as Vicar of Christ, and also named him as his successor as Superior General of the Order of Carmelites of the Holy Face. On the 3rd of March in the year 2011, His Holiness Pope Peter II, by means of a Sacred Decree, named Most Reverend Father Sergius Mary to succeed him, following his death, in the Papacy and as Superior General of the Order of Carmelites of the Holy Face.

He died in the papal apartments in the monastery of the Carmelites of the Holy Face in the Sacred Place of El Palmar de Troya, at 8,07 pm on the 15th of July 2011, following a long and harrowing illness. Pope Saint Peter II the Great was solemnly canonized by his Successor Pope Gregory XVIII on the 17th of July in the year 2011. In the Act of his canonization, he was declared "the Great", and was named "Protector and Defender of the Holy Palmarian Christian Church". He is buried in the Cathedral-Basilica of Our Crowned Mother of El Palmar. He was declared Great Doctor of the Church by His Holiness Pope Gregory XVIII on the 26th of July in the year 2011. On the 28th of April 2013, His Holiness Pope Gregory XVIII infallibly defined that the soul of Pope Saint Peter II the Great, De Cruce Apocalýptica, had not passed through Purgatory, but had gone straight to Heaven.

Chapter III

266. His Holiness Pope Gregory XVIII. Recéptor Christi

Pontificate: From the 15th of July 2011.

In the world, Ginés Jesús Hernández Martínez, he was born in Puebla de Mula, Murcia, Spain. From his youth he began to pilgrim to the Sacred Place of Apparitions of El Palmar de Troya. He studied in the Seminary of Toledo for a year, greatly persecuted for being "Palmarian". He entered the Order of Carmelites of the Holy Face in Company of Jesus and Mary, in which he was ordained Priest and consecrated Bishop on the 2nd of December 1984, with the name of Father Sergius Mary of the Holy Face and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. On the 19th of April 1997, owing to the death of Saint Elias Mary of the Holy Face, Pope Saint Gregory XVII named Father Sergius Mary as Substitute of the Secretariat of State. From his first days in office, he acted with vigour in defence of the Church. During the whole Pontificate of Saint Peter II the Great, Father Sergius Mary was his Secretary of State and faithful collaborator. On the 3rd of March in the year 2011, Pope Saint Peter II drew up and signed a Decree of Succession, naming his Secretary of State, Most Reverend Bishop Father Sergius Mary of the Holy Face, as his successor in the Papacy in the event of his death. He had already made this manifest verbally and privately before the whole Community of Religiosos on the 6th of July in the year 2010. Immediately following the death of Pope Saint Peter II, on the 15th of July 2011, the new Pope began his Pontificate with the name of Gregory XVIII, Recéptor Christi. On Sunday the 17th of July, his Official Coronation took place in the Cathedral Basilica of Our Crowned Mother of El Palmar. That same day, the 17th of July, he canonized his revered predecessor, Pope Peter II. Pope Gregory XVIII convoked the Holy, Great and Dogmatic Third Palmarian Council, which opened on the 6th of January in the year 2012, Festivity of the Lord's Epiphany, and closed on the 12th of September in the year 2012, Feast of the Sweetest Name of Mary, declaring the year of its opening, 2012, a Holy Year in honour of the Holy Spirit, in order that He might be given very special glory and reparation by the children of the Church, imploring His August Divinity to heap Graces and gifts upon all Palmarian faithful, so necessary in the face of coming events. He proclaimed Palmarian Holy Year 2012 also owing to the fortieth anniversary of the enthronement of Our Mother of El Palmar, in the Sacred Place of the Lentisco in El Palmar de Troya, which fell on the 12th of September that year. His Holiness Pope Gregory XVIII decreed that as from the year 2012, Palmarian Holy Week is to begin every year on the 20th of March and end with the Commemoration of Resurrection Sunday on the 27th of March, in order that the Commemoration of Holy Friday may fall on the 25th of March, date of Our Lord Jesus Christ's death.

From the Mystical Desert of El Palmar de Troya, His Holiness Pope Gregory XVIII, as true Vicar of Christ, on the watch and wide-awake, continues to pasture the flock of the Church, One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic and Palmarian entrusted to him by her Divine Founder, Our Lord Jesus Christ. In a world of general apostasy, this Great Caudillo of the 'Tajo', combats present-day errors and aberrations with firmness and courage, and thus prepares the Church for coming apocalyptic events, which will culminate with Christ's Glorious Second Coming, very close.
